Why not try a WINTER STAYCATION. While getting out of town can be a great reward for the extra hours you've put in at work, there's something to be said for booking a winter staycation getaway. Whether it's booking a sleepover at the Shoreside Inn & Suites with a good book or playing those timeless board games, here are a few good reasons a winter staycation is just what you need!

You Have The Time To Go Exploring

No matter how great it is, walking past the same mountain or monument day-in, day-out can leave you numb to its beauty. Even Rome's mighty Coliseum could seem unimpressive to some after a while. Appreciate the beauty that surrounds you and hike around the lake through the Provincial Park.

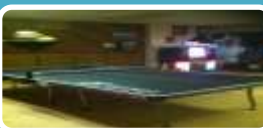

You Can Learn to Snowshoe or Cross Country Ski

Feel the exhilaration of gliding across a frozen lake and check in the ice fishing or follow the trails in the Provincial Park.

You Can Fall Off The Grid

During a staycation you can finally log off your Facebook, Instagram and Snapchat accounts for a few days. Doing so might help you focus more on creating your own adventure.

You Can Go Pubbing

Not every awesome concert in town is held at an arena. On your staycation, you have the chance to go off the beaten path and check out the smaller-scale pubs in the area. You never know when a cocktail at the pub will lead you towards finding your favourite new band or discover your voice at Karaoke.

You Have Time to Read

You may have been putting off re-reading the Harry Potter series, but now is your chance to relive all the magic. Staycations give you the gift of time. Cuddle up with a bottle of wine (we supply), comfy socks and get lost in a favourite novel.

You Can Escape Outside the City

An immediate difference between regular life and vacation time is where you lay your head at night. Even if you're just a few minutes away from home, staying in Wabamun can offer you a great escape from your daily routine. Relax, kick your feet up, and enjoy the experience after a long day of exploring. Take in the incredible sunrise or sunset over the lake. Just try to bring that fresh perspective back with you when you get back to reality.
